The Beloved Stranger (Love Endures) By Grace Livingston Hill

Sherrill Cameron's big day arrives to find her watching from the balcony as her fiancé's secretary walks down the aisle in her place. Sherrill is convinced that nothing could heal her hurt, until the day's gloom is brightened by a handsome stranger who offers constant and comforting help. But Graham Copeland's welcomed presence turns sour when an heirloom emerald necklace goes missing. Is Graham the true beloved stranger Sherrill thought he was? Despite her reservations, Sherrill finds herself falling for Graham's charm, but will her new love leave her stranded at the altar once again?

Editorial Review

Review

This book was simply stunning, one minute I had opened the book and before I knew it I was out of breath and half way through the entire story. I couldn't wait to go to bed the following night to finish it off! Grace Livingston Hill wrote this book in such a way that you will be thrust into the life of Sherrill and her sweet old aunt, Pat and taken along for a ride that you won't quite believe is happening!

Quite seriously, these two characters have more energy, more shenanigan's, and more love in their hearts than anyone I have read about lately. This is a story about faith, hope and trust with a whole lot of fun thrown in!

About the Author

GRACE LIVINGSTON HILL (1865 1947) is known as the pioneer of Christian romance. Grace wrote over one hundred faith-inspired books during her lifetime. When her first husband died, leaving her with two daughters to raise, writing became a way to make a living, but she always recognized storytelling as a way to share her faith in God. She has touched countless lives through the years and continues to touch lives today. Her books feature moving stories, delightful characters, and love in its purest form. Grace Livingston Hill began writing stories in 1877 at the tender age of twelve and didn't stop until her death in 1947. But what may be more amazing is that she has sold over 84 million copies and is still loved by young and old alike.
