Editorial Review

From School Library Journal

Gr 7 Up—This second installment in a planned trilogy picks up where Autumn Falls (Delacorte, 2014) left off. Autumn, a teen from Aventura, FL, had a journal that grants any wish. Unfortunately, it's no longer working. However, the teen soon discovers an object that has the ability to transport her to any place she wants. As savvy readers may guess, the magical transportation proves to be trouble for Autumn. Along with the heavy dose of magical adventure, this flirty read offers lots of romantic drama (and melodrama). There are a few lessons learned about the tough price paid for meddling in the lives of others and the importance of being careful what you wish for. VERDICT With a mix of gentle romance, teen drama, and light fantasy, this is a light and breezy read perfect for young teens not quite ready for steamier fare.—Jesten Ray, Seattle Public Library, WA
