Froggy is back and ready to undertake the challenge of riding a new bike. From choosing the bike of his dreams--complete with bell and horn--to the exhilarating moments of pedaling like mad without his father close by, Froggy is as predictable and lovable as always. At the victory dinner that follows Froggy's got the scars that prove his adventure and his triumph. John McDonough and the Froggy Family are a perfect match. The zoops, ting-a-lings, yikes, boings, and signature frog-g-g-y calls reverberate throughout the story and showcase the rich and deep register of McDonough's voice. McDonough narrates leisurely, providing the listener time to savor both Froggy's antics and McDonough's craft. A.R. © AudioFile 2008, Portland, Maine-- Copyright © AudioFile, Portland, Maine
