Editorial Review

Review

This is an excellent book that breaks new ground in the writing of modern South African history. Giliomee's stature as a historian has enabled him to gain easy access to many of the key people in the issues about which he writes. He does not shy away from challenging existing assumptions or prejudices. This is bound to set up interesting controversies that will enrich the debate about South Africa's tangled, disputed past.

(David Welsh, author of The Rise and Fall of Apartheid)

This is contemporary history at its best, and most lively. No one knows the ins and outs of Afrikanerdom and Afrikaner politics in South Africa as well as Giliomee....Essential

A stunning achievement.

(Athol Fugard on Hermann Giliomee's The Afrikaners: Biography of People)

Utterly mesmerizing.

(Anthony Leon, leader of the Democratic Alliance 1999-2007)
